ATLANTIC PHYSICAL THERAPY

COMPLIMENTARY BODY ANALYSIS COMPOSITION & SPORTS SCIENCE TESTING DISCOUNTS

Receive up to 4x medical body analysis composition. The analysis of body composition by bioelectrical impedance provides you with accurate measures of your skeletal muscle mass, body fat, hydration, resting energy expenditure and more. Additionally, Shore AC Members receive exclusive discounts on sports performance testing such as VO2Max Testing, Resting Metabolic Rate (RMR) Tests, Pulmonary Function Tests, and more.

DIRECT ACCESS TO PHYSICAL THERAPY

See our physical therapists at any location without requiring a physician referral or prescription. Direct access results in more effective care and improved outcomes. Locations include: Brick, Colts Neck, East Windsor, Farmingdale, Freehold, Howell, Jackson, Lacey, Lakewood, Lawrenceville, Little Egg Harbor, Long Branch, Manahawkin, Manchester, Middletown, Monroe, Oakhurst, Red Bank, Shrewsbury, Toms River, and Wall.

Sign up for your body composition analysis by reaching out to Atlantic Physical Therapy Center's Chief Wellness Officer (CWO), Jeremy Kuper, at jdkuper@atlanticptcenter.com or calling 732-528-3850.

Our newest addition is Coach Jordan Brannan. Jordan has been enthusiastically coaching athletes from all different types of backgrounds, abilities, and ages for 4 years. From his time coaching HS at John Jay Brooklyn and Salesian High School to his experience coaching youth athletics with Tailwind Track Club- Jordan ensures his athletes receive tailored experiences no matter their background. Jordan is currently the head cross country and assistant track and field coach with S.U.N.Y. Delhi. Go Broncos! As an athlete, Jordan found success at the high school and college level. As a prep, he had the privilege of training under Armory Hall of Famer coach Jim Schlentz at Colts Neck High where he achieved two NJ all-state titles and 2 All-Americans marks. In his 5 years with Iona College's nationally ranked cross-country program, Jordan achieved 2 MAAC individual conference championships as well as PRs of 14:03(5k), 8:08(3k), 29:43(10k) and 3:50(1500). Jordan continues to train and chase road races alongside his efforts as a coach! Jordan also possesses a NYS adolescent classroom certification, a NYS coaching license and a level 1 USATF certification.

Jordan can be reached at jordanbrannan16@gmail.com.
